

Perform the following tasks:

2. Draw all altitudes of these triangles.

3. In each of the triangles, select the height that is easy to calculate. Find the corresponding base and apply the formula to find the area.

Note: Three identical copies of the geoboard strip are provided for you to experiment (8 triangles total).

