DANIEL X. WANG

Associate Professor Department of Mathematics Central Michigan University Mount Peasant, Michigan 48859

Graduated from Guizhou University China with a B.S. in Applied Mathematics in 1982. Taught Math, and worked for the International Program Office at the same school from 1982 to 1991. Worked with the Alabama International Trade Center and the International Students Office form 1991 to 1995. Entered The Applied Statistics Program of The University of Alabama in 1995, and graduated with a Ph.D. in Applied Statistics in 1999. Taught statistics at UA and worked as a statistical consultant at Mercedes Benz U. S. International during graduate study. Before coming to Central Michigan University, worked at the Biostat Unit, the University of Alabama, Birmingham as a Ph.D. fellow. Worked area includes the Statistical Shape Analysis with applications in medical research and clinical trial study.

Research interest: Regression Diagnostics, Statistical Computing, Graphics and Computer Simulation. Active member of the American Statistical Association and member of Mu Sigma Rho (Statistics Honorary Society).

Honor: Mu Sigma Rho Award for Outstanding Graduate Student in Applied Statistics, 1998.

Hobby: Playing table tennis (Member of USA Table Tennis Club) and fishing.